I certify that the event organizers agree to the following:

- During the event, attendees will be reminded that the event is "Waste Wise" and will be encouraged to dispose of trash properly and to take advantage of recycling containers.
- The event organizers understand that KMB will hold a credit card number as a deposit for the borrowed containers and that the organizers are responsible for replacement costs if containers are lost, damaged, or not returned within a week following the event's conclusion. (See below for complete details.)
- The event organizers agree to return the containers to KMB within 2-3 days and after the event's conclusion. When returning if no one is in the office I will leave stands by the shed.
- A bag count of trash and recycling will be reported to the KMB office: _____ (initial)

Keep the Midlands Beautiful provides trash and recycling containers and bags free of charge. However, if trash, recycling containers or ash receptacles are lost, damaged, or not returned, the event organizers will be charged replacement costs of $45/container for trash containers and $60/container for recycling containers and $250/receptacle for ash receptacles. KMB will hold a credit card number in a locked box as a deposit for the containers. Credit cards will not be charged unless the containers are lost, damaged, or not returned the week following the event's conclusion. KMB will shred credit card information after the containers are returned.
